

July, 15th-20th 2013
Conducting Seminar with Bernhard Wunsch
and the Belarus Radio Symphony Orchestra, Minsk

including one recording session of 45 min. per participant (max. 5 participants)

The course is designed for student-conductors and conductors who want to improve their conducting techniques, as well as for composers who want to learn conducting a full-size orchestra. Each participant will select from the course repertoire the works which he would like to conduct during the seminar, depending on his own level of conducting technique. By sharing his experiences of working with various international orchestras Bernhard Wunsch offers a broad range of conducting and musical interpretation techniques. During this Conducting Seminar the participants get the chance to work with a full-size symphony orchestra, the Belarus Radio Symphony Orchestra, and record one session of 45min per participant.
